

Passing the Baton from Inside to Outside

NICOLE SULLIVAN,

DIRECTOR OF REHABILITATIVE PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

ANNE PRECYTHE,

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS

Dropping the Baton

- For many years Prisons has provided services and programs to inmates
- These offenders were released to Community Corrections' supervision
 - Community Corrections would subsequently seek services and programs in the community for the offender
 - Never did the two entities share information or work together for a seamless transition of the offender

Justice Reinvestment Changes

- Codified the use of Evidence Based Practices
 - o Risk, Need, Responsivity
 - Dynamic Risk/Needs
 Assessment to determine supervision level
 (community) and service priority level (prison)
- Changed how we handle probation violations
 - Confinement in Response to Violation (CRV)

- Created a new sentencing option
 - Advanced Supervised Release (ASR)
- Required post-release supervision for all felons
 - o 9 or 12 months depending on offense
 - Reentry/Transitionplanning and preparation
