Veterans Readjustment Program

Denny J. Whitmore

Supervisor of Education

FCI McKean

Why Is This Program Needed?

- To better serve the needs of the incarcerated veteran.
- To help provide a successful plan for Reentry.
- To create a safer community within the confinements of prison.

Why Is It Important to Me?

- My correctional experience helps me to understand the incarcerated veteran.
- My military experience gives me the experience and creditability to lead these men.
- My experience coordinating the IVG has given me insight in to the needs of the incarcerated veteran.

Program Purpose

This program was created due to the increased number of veterans currently incarcerated in the Federal Prison system.

The purpose of this program is to establish a process of rehabilitation within FCI McKean that treats the incarcerated veteran's specific needs for support while in prison and provides skill for life in the larger community.

Mission Statement

The Veterans Readjustment Program's purpose is to create a well rounded approach to prison.

The goal of the program is to create an environment that will help offenders navigate their incarceration period and equip them with tools to successfully transition back into society.

Regional and BOP Veteran's Statistics

- Incarcerated Veterans in the BOP – 8,890 (5.5%)
- Average Sentence Length 165 Months
- Incarcerated Veterans in the NER– 1,348 (5.6%)
- Average Sentence Length 155 Months

Program Admission

One institution designated per region

Each designated institution will determine the number of veteran offenders eligible to participate

New veteran commitments recommended by the sentencing judge

Program Requirements

- Copy of Discharge Form
- 18 months clear conduct
- Willingness to participate
- Attendance at all classes, meetings and required groups

The image shows a sample of a DD Form 214, 'A Partial Release Certificate (also known as Discharge)'. The form is a complex document with multiple sections for personal information, service details, and discharge status. The text 'DD214' is overlaid in large, bold, red letters across the center of the form. At the bottom of the form, it reads 'DD Form 214 (A Partial Release Certificate) (also known as Discharge)' and 'ARMED FORCES OF THE UNITED STATES'.

Visit the Conference Site

The image shows a virtual conference site for the National Institute of Corrections (NIC). The interface is set against a background of a modern conference hall with people walking and an escalator. The main content area features a large blue curved banner with the NIC logo and the text "Welcome to the NIC 2016 Virtual Conference Leading with Innovation!". Below this banner are three smaller blue panels: "Discussion Forum", "Conference Tutorials", and "Help Desk". To the right of the "Help Desk" panel is a "Schedule" panel. A vertical sidebar on the left contains a list of navigation options, each with a corresponding icon. At the top right of the main content area, there are four circular icons: a blue monitor with people, a purple stack of books, an orange gear, and an orange speech bubble with a lightbulb. At the bottom of the page, the text "Welcome to the NIC 2016 Virtual Conference!" is repeated.
